

STEP 2
qualifying as a corporate donor

All Philippine corporations, either de facto or duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), may engage in corporate giving for any purpose that is not contrary to law, public morals, public order, or public policy.

A corporate donor does not qualify for tax benefits, however, until certain other conditions are met. These are listed and explained in Step 7: Claiming Tax Benefits.